Dear Colleagues

Due to the actual situation of the shutdown of presence lectures at the University of Vienna till Easter break, we have to do some very slight modifications of our planned schedule of the DBS lectures.

Changes to the original plans also comprise:

- We reduce the number of theory presence lectures by one (Memory-File-Index Structures). The contents of this deleted lecture will be omitted from the exam and the practical lectures.
- All lecture slides will be available from now on for home studies.

As always, all materials will be provided via the Cewebs site. Also, this information is already presented at the website.

Please use the forum if you have any questions. Make sure to check the Cewebs site of the course (https://cewebs.cs.univie.ac.at/DBS/ss20/) regularly. We will post new information there as it becomes available.

Thus, the planned schedule of work is the following:
